The property

For sale in Megève, this rare Côte 2000 property will appeal to lovers of exceptional properties. This authentic alpine farmhouse, entirely renovated with refinement, offers 345 m (547 m²) of overlooked land.

Situated at the foot of the cross-country ski slopes, between Mont d'Arbois and Côte 2000, this unique residence boasts a highly sought-after location, a real asset for an investment property or a prestigious second home.

The interior, renovated with respect for Alpine architecture, combines noble materials and generous volumes. The main living area features a double cathedral roof and central fireplace, creating a welcoming, authentic atmosphere. The semi-open, fully-equipped kitchen invites you to share convivial moments. An office completes the space, combining functionality and tranquility. This property offers seven en-suite bedrooms, each with a private balcony offering spectacular views of the surrounding peaks.

This unique chalet is an ideal haven for nature lovers and those seeking serenity. Its renovation highlights noble materials and spacious volumes, while preserving the authenticity of this former alpine farmhouse.

Its exclusive character, top-of-the-range amenities and privileged location make this chalet a rare opportunity to buy in one of Megève's most sought-after areas.
