The property

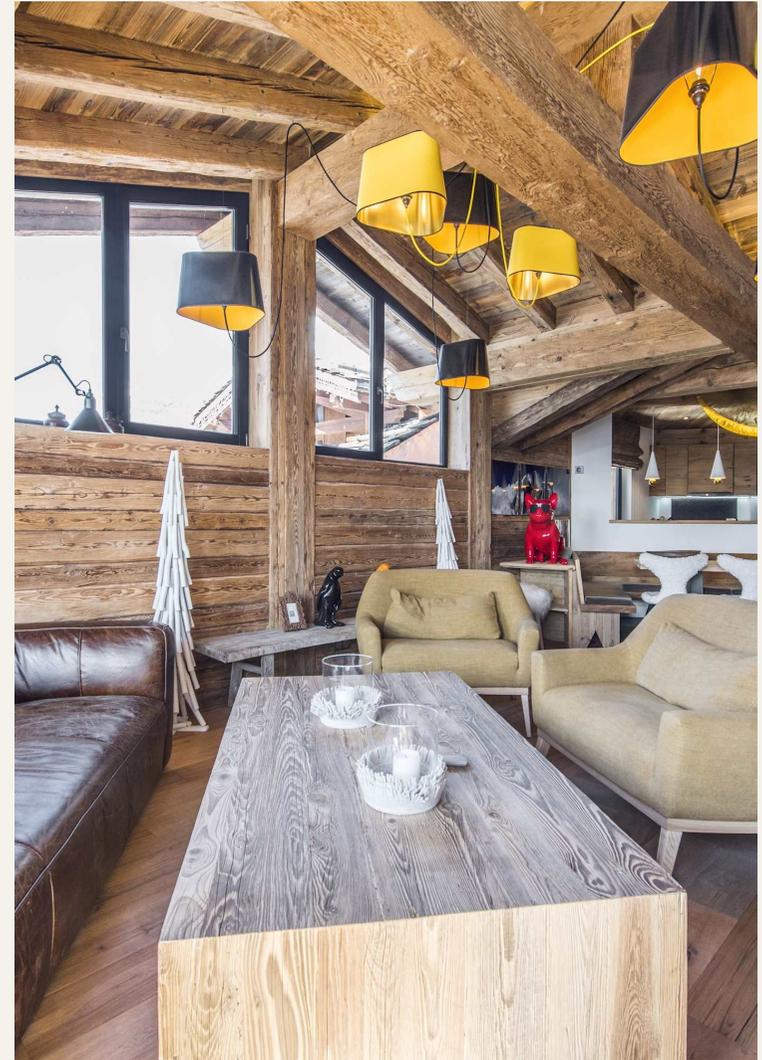

With its 170 sqm of space, grand exposed beams, and volumes bathed in light, it welcomes up to 10 guests in an elegant and inviting alpine setting.

The apartment features 4 double bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms, along with a mountain corner equipped with bunk beds — ideal for children. The expansive living area, flooded with natural light thanks to double-height bay windows, is centered around a beautiful fireplace and opens onto a large terrace facing the Olympic slope. In the evening, it's the perfect spot to admire the torchlight descent in peaceful silence.

Every detail has been thoughtfully designed: noble materials, contemporary furnishings, aged wood, and modern comforts come together in a cozy yet refined ambiance.

The balcony, accessible from the living room and several bedrooms, immerses you in the spirit of the village while offering a spectacular view of the Bellevarde face, which gradually lights up as the evening sets in. A unique alpine experience, where authenticity meets elegance.
