The property

Located in the heart of Megève, just moments from the village's boutiques, restaurants and ski lifts, Troika 2 apartment offers an effortless way to experience the resort. Everything is within walking distance, making it easy to leave the car in the garage and enjoy village life at your own pace.

The spacious terrace quickly becomes the highlight of the stay. From breakfast onwards, it opens onto views of the church bell tower, the village rooftops and the surrounding mountains. After a day on the slopes, guests naturally return home before heading out again to enjoy Megève's restaurants and lively atmosphere, all just a short walk away.

Designed for up to six guests, the apartment features a welcoming lounge, an open kitchen and dining area that extend towards the terrace. The master bedroom enjoys direct outdoor access, while the two additional bedrooms provide a comfortable layout for families or friends travelling together. A ski room and secure underground parking make daily life particularly convenient.

Combining village life, mountain views and immediate access to the slopes, Troika 2 apartment offers a relaxed way to experience Megève throughout the year.
