The property

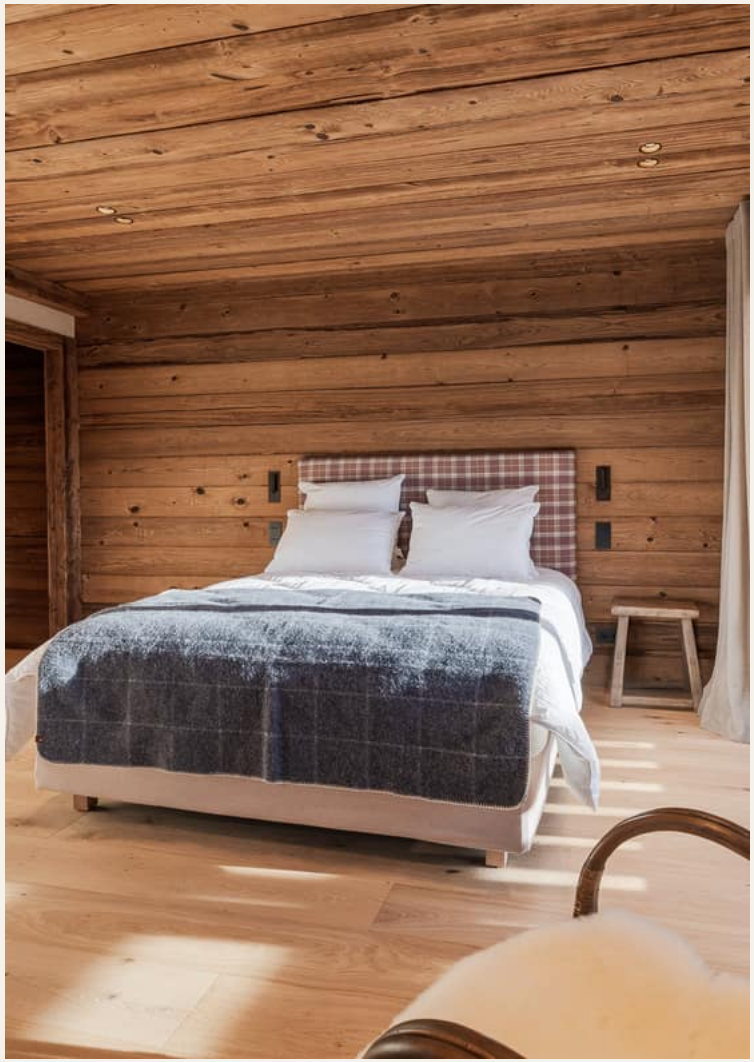

In the heart of Megève, Chalet Campanule is a short walk from the pedestrian zone and shops, yet the neighbourhood is quieter than the historic centre. From the upper floors, the view opens onto the Jaillet, offering an alpine panorama without being at the summit.

The chalet spans 534 m en-suite bedrooms, including a dormitory, each open onto a terrace or balcony. On the second floor, a large living area with an open kitchen, dining table and lounge is dominated by a monumental fireplace. A mezzanine holds a piano, and a lift serves every floor.

On the ground floor, a complete wellness area includes a pool, sauna, hammam and gym, as well as a cinema room. Several terraces and balconies provide more intimate spots or open views of the town and the Jaillet.

Campanule combines generous volumes with refined décor and high-end finishes. Life here moves between the warm living area, time at the cinema or pool, and evenings by the fireplace. The town centre is within walking distance, but once inside, you feel at home.

We would choose Campanule for a group or family that wants the best of Megève without compromise: the capacity, the amenities of a la...
