The property

Nestled within the prestigious and secure hamlet of Bellecôte, this exceptional chalet offers the rare advantage of direct slope access combined with a serene and intimate atmosphere, surrounded by fir trees and set apart from the bustle of the resort centre.
With its six elegant en-suite bedrooms and a spacious master suite featuring a private lobby, study and bathroom, the chalet comfortably accommodates 12 adults and 2 children.

Attention to detail can be found throughout: hand-painted interiors, traditional wood panelling and finely carved decorative features. The overall effect is one of timeless elegance, blending authentic alpine character with modern comfort.
The generous and welcoming living areas immediately charm guests: a large convivial lounge centred around a wood-burning fireplace, a warm dining room perfect for long family meals, a private bar, a cosy corner ideal for board games, as well as a snug and a television room for relaxing. After a full day on the slopes, the bright indoor jacuzzi offers the perfect place to unwind, completing the experience of a truly exceptional mountain stay.

Finally, the chalet's carved wraparound balconies provide spectacular views of the...
