The property

Located in the heart of Méribel, Chalet Frost offers a refined alpine retreat for up to 14 guests across five elegantly appointed double bedrooms and a family suite, each featuring en-suite bathrooms. Ideally positioned in the Mussillon district, close to shuttle stops and ski lifts, this beautifully renovated chalet enjoys stunning, unobstructed south-facing mountain views.

Spread over four levels, the chalet boasts spacious open-plan living areas warmed by a cosy fireplace, seamlessly connecting the dining space and fully equipped kitchen. Large bay windows frame the breathtaking panoramas, while the expansive terrace invites guests to relax in the outdoor hot tub and soak in the scenery.

Practical amenities include two ski rooms with ample storage for equipment, a garage for parking, and a dedicated sauna to unwind after a day on the slopes.
