The property

A short walk from the heart of Megève, along the peaceful Montée du Calvaire, Chalet Hermine sits in a quiet alpine setting where the mountain naturally shapes the rhythm of the stay. From the south-facing terraces, the views open onto the surrounding peaks and the village, offering the rare comfort of experiencing Megève entirely on foot.

Designed by Henry Jacques Le Même, one of the architects who shaped Megève's identity, the chalet reflects the traditional mountain style that has become synonymous with the resort. Warm wood interiors, authentic details and welcoming volumes create an atmosphere that feels both timeless and deeply connected to its surroundings.

Inside, the living area is centered around a fireplace, designed as a natural gathering point after days spent outdoors. The dining area and open kitchen extend this space in a smooth, unforced flow. Four en-suite bedrooms host up to eight guests, giving everyone room to settle into their own pace.

Days unfold between village strolls, quiet returns to the chalet, and shared moments by the fire or on the terrace depending on the season. It is a place that lets you experience Megève in a balanced way, between gentle activity an...
