The property

Nestled in the highly sought-after Chenus area, Chalet Refuge is a legendary family chalet in Courchevel 1850. Surrounded by fir trees and offering spectacular views of the Aiguille du Mey, the Vanoise glacier and La Grande Casse, it combines authenticity with top-level comfort.

Its warm atmosphere is reflected in the traditional Savoyard décor, with aged wood covering every surface from floor to ceiling. The vast living area is organized around a central fireplace, dividing the lounge and dining spaces, perfect for long family meals around the impressive wooden table carved from a single slab. The semi-professional kitchen is ideal for a private chef, whether for continental breakfasts, traditional cuisine, or refined dinners.

Chalet Refuge offers facilities on par with Courchevel's finest hotels: a wellness area with jacuzzi, hammam and sauna, a private lift serving all four floors, and six elegant en-suite bedrooms accommodating up to twelve guests. A true alpine haven, it promises unforgettable moments filled with warmth, sharing and conviviality.
