The property

In the heart of Megève, Chalet des Soeurs offers a rare combination of village life and complete privacy. Just moments from the pedestrian streets, the 400 sqm chalet is tucked behind landscaped hedges, creating a peaceful setting where an old apple tree, a traditional well and a small pond add a distinctly Alpine character.

Life naturally moves between indoors and out. The garden and terrace provide several places to sit and enjoy the surroundings, while the outdoor pool offers a relaxed setting during the warmer months. After a day on the slopes, guests can return to the chalet and make the most of the indoor pool, sauna and hammam.

Inside, contemporary interiors are balanced by natural materials and warm Alpine touches. The main living area centres around a striking fireplace, with a separate kitchen and an open bar connecting it to the living space. It is designed for long lunches, relaxed evenings and time spent together.

The seven bedrooms are spread across the two upper floors. Four double bedrooms are located on the first floor, each with a shower room, including the main suite with an additional 140 bed. Upstairs, three further bedrooms offer different layouts: a double bedroom...
