The property

The design blends chic alpine aesthetics with refined wood details, creating a sophisticated yet cozy atmosphere. The second-highest floor is devoted to living spaces, featuring a double-height lounge anchored by a luxurious fireplace, with an elegant dining area and a contemporary bar, all opening onto a wraparound balcony with panoramic mountain views.

The wellness hub includes an indoor pool with a counter-current system, a Hammam, a massage area, and a gym overlooking the pool, while a state-of-the-art cinema room provides an excellent entertainment space.

Seven en-suite bedrooms offer flexibility, including two Master doubles on the top floor; other rooms configured as doubles or twins, plus a family suite with a cozy snug and children's bunk beds, and one accessible room. For convenience, a heated ski room, an elevator between floors, and underground parking are available; the chalet can be rented with Chalet O Valala next door for groups up to 28.
