The property

In the Jaillet district, Apartment Ivoir sits directly at the foot of the Megève slopes. The village is just a few minutes away, offering both immediate ski access and proximity to shops and restaurants. From the balcony, the view opens onto the Alpine massifs, a constant spectacle that accompanies every moment.

The 100 m
bedrooms, each with its own private bathroom. This layout allows several couples or a family to enjoy the space without sacrificing privacy. The large living room with open kitchen forms the heart of communal life, flooded with light thanks to the continuous balcony.

Access to the residence's swimming pools adds a wellness dimension after a day on the slopes. The fireplace in the living room invites evenings by the fire, while the balcony offers a permanent viewpoint over the mountains. The apartment is also equipped with modern amenities for a hassle-free stay.

Ivoir is lived simply: ski-in/ski-out in the morning, back to warmth for lunch facing the mountain, then pool or balcony depending on the mood. In the evening, the fireplace gathers everyone before heading to the village for dinner. A rhythm where the mountain is alwa...
