The property

In the heart of Val d'Isère, the Penthouse Argent sits just steps from the slopes and a short walk from the village's shops and restaurants. Ski-in/ski-out access means you can go from your bedroom to the snow in minutes, while the central location keeps the après-ski within easy reach.

Spread over four levels, the 425 m guests in seven en-suite bedrooms. Each room offers its own private space, while the open-plan living areas, a large salon with a central fireplace, a dining room and a fully equipped kitchen, are designed for shared moments. Floor-to-ceiling windows and several terraces bring the mountain light inside.

The fireplace anchors the main living space, and the kitchen is set up for convivial dinners. A dedicated concierge service handles everything from ski passes to restaurant bookings, so you can focus on the mountain. The property also includes a private ski room and a laundry service.

Mornings start with coffee on the terrace facing the peaks; evenings end around the fire after a day on the slopes. The penthouse balances the energy of a large group with the calm of a private retreat, the kind of place where everyone finds their own rhythm.
