The property

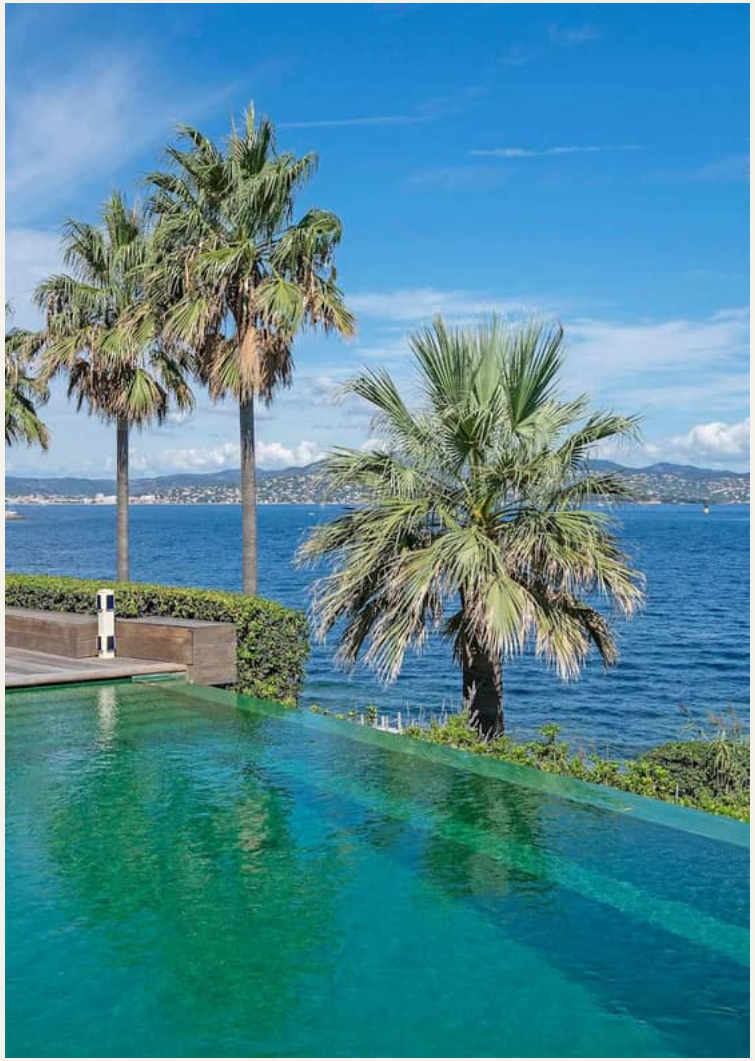

With direct access to a secluded cove and a private pontoon, this rare property promises total immersion in the Saint-Tropez lifestyle, combining absolute tranquility with spectacular sea views.

This 280 m
architecture and luminous interior dominated by white tones, subtly enhanced by touches of color. Each interior space has been designed to let nature express itself: large bay windows opening onto the sea, unobstructed views of the Estérel mountains and the Southern Alps, and a soothing atmosphere at any time of day.

Villa Celeste can accommodate up to ten guests and has five bedrooms, including a twin room that is ideal for families. Outside, 3,000 m large wooden terrace leading to a heated infinity pool, perfect for enjoying the Côte d'Azur sunshine from April to October.

Secure and located in one of the most exclusive areas of Saint-Tropez, the property offers a discreet and privileged environment. More than just a rental, Villa Celeste offers an exceptional seaside experience, just minutes from the lively center of Saint-Tropez and the famous beaches of Pampelonne.
