The property

Contemporary in style, these exceptional properties feature large windows overlooking lush exteriors, flooding the interiors with natural light. At night, the property can be impressively lit, with 250 floodlights illuminating the buildings, swimming pools and gardens. Traditional Provençal dry stone walls line the property and create an interesting contrast to the pure white look seen throughout. The result is a spectacle for the senses, a perfect marriage between nature and modern architecture.

A property conducive to happiness

Villa Gallipoli is a unique and contemporary property whose architecture blends into the rich landscape of umbrella pines and olive trees. A few steps from the restaurant 'La Pomme de Pin' and the beach of Tahiti, the Gallipoli villa rental is an ideal place to gather friends or family and experience unforgettable moments of conviviality and relaxation. In this dream setting, HOMEBOOKER also provides its customers with a wide choice of luxury services, available on request.
