Saint-Tropez, French Riviera

22 Travelers 11 bedrooms 11 baths 6

The property

Located just moments from the heart of Saint-Tropez, Villa Léon unfolds its elegance in a rare setting between Mediterranean pine forest and sweeping sea views. A true design statement, this exceptional residence blends the iconic aesthetic of India Mahdavi with the timeless art of Tropezian living.

Designed to accommodate up to 22 guests, the villa features 11 spacious en-suite bedrooms. Each suite is a unique atmosphere, carefully curated around colors, textures, and lighting inspired by the surrounding nature—like individual living artworks. The expansive, light-filled living room is both characterful and refined, offering the perfect space for sharing and relaxation. A fully equipped fitness room completes the indoor living areas, ensuring comfort and well-being.

Outdoors, the enchantment continues. A shimmering pool, private tennis court, shaded alcoves and sun-drenched terraces—every area has been crafted as a living postcard of the South of France. The garden, dotted with contemporary sculptures, feels like an open-air gallery, where art and nature exist in perfect harmony. On either side of the property, a rare dual sea view opens up—towards the beaches of Pampelonne on one side, and the Bay of Canoubiers on the other—making ...
